

The CVRC invites all members to enter our Photo Competition 2024 to generate relevant photos for our communications. We are looking for photos that reflect your day-to-day work life and scientific interests. If you are willing to share them for use in our communications (social media, website, press releases, etc.), please send them to us!

Please note that if there are identifiable people in the photo, we must have written permission from these people that the image can be used and shared.

Small prizes will be awarded. Please submit your photos no later than June 15, 2024.
